- During the Recreation update Rick discussed the town events, the Recreation brochure and the programming the Recreation Dept. does.

Dept. of Recreation Update:

Recreation Director: Jessie Hollenbeck reported on the following:

- The first day of spring recreation program registration was the largest single day dollar amount. This included summer camp registrations.
- The question of the ratio for instructor payment and town revenue was brought up and Jessie explained the 70/30 % payment procedure. He also explained the process of town run programs.
- Jessie requested that any new program ideas be brought to him, with 6 months advance notice.
- Jessie discussed the future upcoming events the Recreation Dept. is planning and he also requested input on sponsors for some of these events.
- Jessie reported on the senior's updated information including: in house lunches, both Monroe County and home cooked lunches on Tuesdays. Jessie also talked about increased attendance for both lunches and senior programs. The senior's lounge was dedicated to Ronald A. Anderson and there will be a reception in the future.
- Jessie requested the board's involvement with our guided hikes, trail clean ups and town events.
- Jessie talked about the pavilion and gaga pit to be built at the Community Ctr.

Town Board Update:

Town Board Council: Kim Taylor reported on the following:

- The new town board members.
- A zoning update.
- The COVID funding by the federal government. This included updates for the library. She requested suggestions on projects for this funding.

Comments: The following topics were discussed by the board and attendees:

- John Reddington requested an update on the kayak launch.
- The parent of the student, that attended, brought up the community garden for discussion.
- Pam Cooper-Vince brought up the idea of a splash pad.

Rick Taylor made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Ben McCormick seconded the motion, which passed following a unanimous vote. The meeting closed at 7:40 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
