PUBLIC HEARING FOR SUPERVISOR’S PROPOSED BUDGET FOR 2023 AND SPECIAL DISTRICTS
Supervisor Smith reviewed his proposed 2023 budget for those in attendance at the meeting. The Town’s tax rate will remain flat, at $3.13 per $1,000 of assessed property value, with no increase. All current Town services will continue at current levels or better. He noted that no ARPA funds are used in this budget; that ARPA funds are independent of the budget and are not counted toward revenue.

Following this presentation, the Supervisor opened the public hearing on the proposed Budget for 2023, asking if any members of the public wished to comment. The Town Clerk read a comment submitted by resident from Pat Maxwell. With no further public comments, the Supervisor closed the Public Hearing and asked for comments and questions from the Town Board.

Councilmember Townsend asked about Public Works budget lines inquiring if the amount budgeted for road repairs will be sufficient with rising costs. Commissioner Schenkel responded that the several budget lines that together comprise the budget for road work provide funding sufficient for road work and maintenance scheduled for next year. Councilmember Townsend also noted that if the budget allows as the year proceeds, the Board should consider adding more crossing guards in the spring or fall. Deputy Supervisor Munzinger agreed. Councilmember Taylor asked about funding proposed for elections. Town Clerk McQuillen acknowledged a decrease, consequent to the County taking over direct compensation of election inspectors. Previously the Town paid the inspectors and the County compensated the Town, requiring a funding line in the Town budget. Councilmember Taylor also asked about a bonded sewer extension project. Commissioner Schenkel explained that this is the final year for payment on the bond. Deputy Supervisor Munzinger thanked the department heads, Finance Director Brian Luke, and Supervisor Smith for their work in preparing the 2023 budget. She appreciates being able to keep the tax rate flat in a time when costs seem to be continually rising. Councilmember Koshkyar remarked she would like to know the purpose of the special project line under Personnel. Brian Luke, Finance Director explained that it covers safety training and other training for employees and volunteer board members. Staff answered additional questions about funding lines for traffic, recreation programming and town wide events.

Thereafter, Supervisor Smith moved that the 2023 proposed Budget, Sewer Rents, Special Districts, and Debt Service budgets be approved as the 2023 adopted budget. This was seconded by Deputy Supervisor Munzinger, and voted on by members as follows: Ayes: Koshkyar, Munzinger, Taylor, Townsend, and Smith. Nays: none.
